POTTR

Master the art of plating with the chef-driven Finn collection by POTTR. Hand crafted by skilled artisans, Finn features a flat body and gently tapered sides that maximise plating area and set the stage for food to shine.
This versatile range is available in two glaze finishes: White and Black Smoke. Each is expertly applied by hand, offering an authentic finishing touch and striking contrast for vibrant ingredients. An exposed foot at the base reveals the raw clay beneath, a quiet reminder of the maker's touch.
Fully vitrified and built for the demands of service, Finn brings together commercial insight with the artisanal feel of handmade ceramics.
