Moda Porcelain

The beautiful new Moda Porcelain range from Trenton International is at once striking, pleasant to the touch and practical. The dinnerware line is reminiscent of artisanal ceramic but can withstand the rigours of commercial use.

Crafted from soft, natural clay, the range's colour palette works well with any interior. It also adds just the right touch of elegance to showcase fine food presentation.

The latest trends lean towards softer and more subtle decors and Moda Porcelain provides a style that complements that. Its muted earth tones and pastel shades blend well with these new environments. An individual colour lends a subtle elegance to the dining experience, and an appealing eclecticism when combined with other colours.

Of course, it's not all form with the Moda Porcelain line. It's designed for commercial use, and thus has all the durability required for long-term cleaning, storage, and stacking.

The word Moda means fashion, and thus the Moda Porcelain crockery range offers a touch of glamour and natural style to any table.
