

Deco Servingware

The Moda Deco Servingware collection draws on the ornate detailing and material richness of a vintage aesthetic. Inspired by mid-century design and the decorative character of a bygone era of service, Moda Deco translates this sensibility into a range built for the rigours of modern commercial use.

This collection spans four round trays, three oval platters, and three individually styled dessert dishes. The round trays and oval platters are crafted from stainless steel with a brushed semi-matte finish and ornate edges. The three dessert dishes introduce a contrasting, refined mirror polish finish, with the ornate detailing carried through the bowls and stems of each individual piece. Small in stature, this collection is ideally suited to single-serve bar snacks, petits fours, and desserts.

Made from durable stainless steel, each piece is fully dishwasher safe and designed to perform across the demands of a commercial kitchen.
