

The Glitch

Presenting a unique mixology experience from ONIS: The Glitch.

The Glitch's design, true to its namesake, features 'glitched' mismatched tiers that shift the presentation of beverages, creating interest through interactions with the drink and its environment. The stepped design provides visual appeal, inviting fingers to mould to the glass form for a drinking experience that is hard to put down.

Designed by the highly decorated Kate Gerwin, the first female World Bartender champion and winner of ONIS's Glassology competition, The Glitch has quickly become a worldwide sensation within the bartending scene.
