

Terni Dry Heat Chafers

Revolutionise hotel buffet service with Terni Dry Heat Chafers by Sunnex.

Stylish in design, the mirror-polished stainless steel body is coupled with a hydraulic hinged tempered glass lid, ideal for displaying food whilst remaining covered.

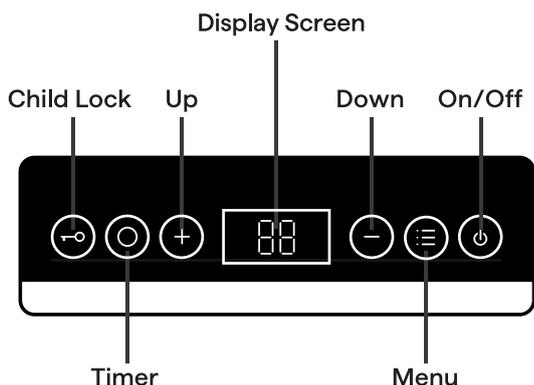

Patented dry heat technology keeps food consistently warm throughout service. A digital display panel provides precise temperature control with ease, along with key functions including a temperature lock.

This low power 400-watt waterless system removes the risk of pans boiling dry and improves staff safety from hot water changes.

Precise Temperature Control

Chafing dishes need to stay hot and maintain consistent heat, but they often don't, especially when using traditional chafing dishes with liquid or jelly fuel.

The Sunnex Terni Dry Heat Chafers feature a digital temperature-control panel, allowing for quick and convenient temperature adjustment and monitoring. A child lock function ensures the temperature is not easily or accidentally adjusted by guests.

No Water? No Worry.

Traditional and some electric chafing dishes utilise hot water to keep food warm. Not only does this require time for water pans to heat up, water levels must also be monitored to ensure they do not run dry.

Sunnex's Terni Chafers operate using a waterless system that safely heats food via a heating element, removing hazardous staff water changeovers and reducing water consumption.
