Sorrento Scalloped Wide Rim Pasta Bowl

ID Fine

Transport your guests to the shores of Southern Italy with the Sorrento range by ID Fine. Inspired by coastal citrus groves for a fully immersive presentation, each piece is framed by a delicate border of lemon trees, expertly applied using innovative digital printing for crisp detail and a subtly textured surface. The centre of each piece remains a crisp white porcelain canvas, drawing the eye to the centre of each piece and immersing diners into the heart of the Mediterranean.

Sorrento is available in a collection of plates and bowls across two edge styles: a clean, modern standard edge, and a scalloped embossed edge that works to further enhance the authentic appeal of each piece.

The fusion of classic Italian inspired ceramic designs with digital application makes Sorrento an ideal choice for venues wanting to offer an authentic aesthetic on a product built to withstand the rigours of modern-day hospitality settings.
