

Ocean

Inspired by the three states of matter - solid, liquid, and gas - Ocean Glassware's Matter has been designed as the ultimate drinking experience. Intricate cuts add refined texture, playing with light and colour to enhance the visual appeal of each beverage.

Matter's subtly tapered shape, concave bottom, and considered weight offer irresistible balance and comfort in hand, making it the ideal choice for whiskies, negroni's, and other classic old fashioned and double old fashioned drinks alike.
